Consultant also acknowledges and agrees that PREPA's payment obligation under any assignment of funds of compensation for Services rendered by Consultant will cease upon payment of all outstanding amounts under this Contract. The term “confidential information”, however, will not include information that:

- (i) is or becomes public other than through a breach of this Contract;
- (ii) is known to the receiving Party prior to the date of this Contract and with respect to which the receiving Party does not have any obligation of confidentiality; or

Accordingly, either Party may seek and obtain injunctive relief against the breach or threatened breach of the foregoing undertakings, in addition to any other legal remedies, which may be available.

MRT

12.5 If this Contract terminates for any reason, Consultant shall maintain in strictest confidence both; during the term of this Contract and subsequent to termination of this Contract, and shall not during the term of this Contract or thereafter disclose or divulge to any person, firm, or corporation, or use directly or indirectly, for its own benefit or the benefit of others, any information which in good faith and good conscience ought to be treated as confidential information including, without limitation, information relating to PREPA's operations or trade secrets relating to the business or affairs of PREPA which Consultant may acquire or develop in connection with or as a result of the performance of the Services hereunder. In the event of an actual or threatened breach by Consultant of the provisions of this paragraph, PREPA shall be entitled to injunctive relief for such breach. Nothing herein shall be construed as prohibiting PREPA from pursuing any other legal remedies available, including the recovery of damages from Consultant.

12.6 The above provisions do not apply with respect to information, which Consultant is requested to disclose under applicable law and regulations, court order, subpoena or governmental directives, in which case Consultant shall provide PREPA prompt notice of such request in order to procure for PREPA a reasonable opportunity to oppose such disclosure. Consultant agrees to expeditiously notify and submit to PREPA a copy of any court order or subpoena and to the extent possible provide any assistance to PREPA (in the form of documents) regarding the submission of such information.

MRT

12.7 With respect to this Contract and any information supplied in connection with this Contract and designated by the disclosing Party as confidential, the recipient agrees to: (i) protect the confidential information in a reasonable and appropriate manner and in accordance with applicable professional standards; (ii) use confidential information only to perform its obligations under this Contract; and (iii) reproduce confidential information only as required to perform its obligations under this Contract.

13.2 All rights, titles and interest in any reports, documents, analyses, investigations and any other by-product conceived or developed by the Consultant exclusively for PREPA as a result of performing its obligations under this Contract shall be the exclusive property of PREPA upon full and final payment to the Consultant. The Party of this Contract subject to the claim or that becomes aware of a potential claim shall promptly notify in writing the other Party of this Contract, and give the authority, information, and assistance reasonable and necessary for the defense of such claim.

If, in such suit, the document, report, study, analysis, copyrighted composition, article or any by-product of those or any part thereof is held to constitute infringement and its use is enjoined, the infringing Party, shall rectify the part of the services affected by such determination by (a) procuring for PREPA, or reimburse PREPA for procuring, the right to continue using the infringing Service; (b) modify the infringing Service, so that the same becomes non-infringing; or (c) replace the infringing Service, with non-infringing Service, as the case may be.
